January 2008

Protecting and conserving avian populations through research, education and advocacy

We will only be banding birds at CBO and the ERC this month. Both of these sites have indoor facilities and birdfeeders.

It is too cold to be outdoors at our other two banding stations (HWBS and MUBO) in January.

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

- 1/1: Chili Challenge Birding Competition kicks off. Grab your birding partner and start the year off with a birding trip around the area!
- CBO: Clifford Bird Observatory. 9:30–11:30 am. Dave Russell will be at CBO teaching us banding methods. We will be doing some banding, but mostly this is a training session.
- CBO Class: 1:30-2:30pm. Every month, we will be teaching a class on common birds at birdfeeders. This month we'll cover Chickadees and Juncos. Please join us!
- 1/26: BWOB - Birds Without Borders Workshop bird banding session at the Ecology Resource Center (ERC), Miami University, 9:00am - noon. This is the first of three pre-trip bird banding sessions before we head to Mexico in March. All BWOB participants must attend 2 of the 3 pre-trip sessions.
