

A R B I

Protecting and conserving avian populations through research, education and advocacy

Bird Banding occurs on scheduled dates from dawn until noon at the following sites:

- HWBS: Hueston Woods Biological Station
- MUBO: Miami University Bird Observatory
- CBO: Clifford Bird Observatory

Please see the website for directions to the banding stations

Avian Research and Education Institute, Inc.

PO 555
W College Corner, IN 47003

Drs. Jill & Dave Russell
Dave's Cell: 513-382-4889
Jill's Cell: 513-218-7228

info@avianinstitute.org
www.avianinstitute.org

March 2008

SUN	MON	TUE	WED	THU	FRI	SAT
						1
2	3	4	5	6	7	8
		HWBS		CBO		BWB
9	10	11	12	13	14	15
		MUBO		BWB Mexico	BWB Mexico	BWB Mexico
16	17	18	19	20	21	22
BWB Mexico	BWB Mexico	BWB Mexico	BWB Mexico	BWB Mexico	BWB Mexico	BWB Mexico
23	24	25	26	27	28	29
BWB Mexico		HWBS		CBO
30	31

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

- 3/8 - BWB: 9am-noon, 3rd Birds Without Borders Workshop banding session at Ecology Research Center (ERC), Miami University.
- 3/13-22 - BWB Mexico: 1st half of Birds Without Borders Workshop, El Cielo Biosphere Reserve, Mexico. The Drs Russell taking Miami University students into the cloud forest of northern Mexico to join a group of faculty and students from the Autonomous University of Tamaulipas (UAT) and band neotropical migrants. 2nd half of workshop is in May, when UAT students come to Ohio.

- Banding will be cancelled if it is too cold, windy or if it is raining. Changes to the banding schedule will be posted to this page, so check the website for updates!

Golden-browed Warbler, Mexico

